

EMPLOYMENT GROUPING.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

BAKER—Wanted, situation by a No. 1 bread and cake baker; country preferred. 1501 S. 12th st.

BOY—Earning boy, 17 years of age, would like a position with a position; have had experience. Call or J. R., 3870 S. 12th st., downtown.

BOY—Bright boy 15 years old wants position in store or office. Ad. C 705, this office.

BOOK-KEEPER—Wanted, position as bookkeeper; competent in all details; 20 years' experience; city reference. Ad. H 705, this office.

BOOK-KEEPER—Wanted, situation as bookkeeper or office man by an expert accountant; A1 references and bond; work guaranteed. Add. Chas. Hazard, 1710 Morgan.

CARPENTER—Good carpenter wants jobbing; will work for $1.50 a day or by the job; repairs furniture. A1. Carpenter, 806 N. 12th st.

CLERK—Wanted, situation by experienced grocery clerk; speaks English and German; reference. Room 12, 1003 Olive st.

COOK—Situation wanted by German man; first-class restaurant or hotel; call or address Cook, 625 S. Broadway.

COOK—Camping party wishing male cook (white), and all around man about camp, will please add. R 608, this office.

DRIVER—Situation wanted as driver or porter by married man. Ad. L 704, this office.

DRUGGIST—Wanted, situation by junior druggist; 5 years' experience; no ref.; wages no object. Ad. L 705, this office.

MAN—Man wishes to do work in exchange for horse and wagon. 4444 Wyoming st.

MACHINIST—A machinist wants position in factory to take charge of machinery and to repair; good draughtsmanship; can design new work. Add. F 704, this office.

MAN—Elderly kind St. Louis man wishes employment in manufacturing office; best ref.; wages as employers will. Add. G 609, this office.

MAN—Position wanted by thorough business man, on road or in store. Add. 2091 Pine st., city.

MEAT CUTTER—Experienced meat cutter, speaks English and German; reference. Room 12, 1003 Olive st.

MAN—Situation wanted by a man to take care of horse; handy with tools and work around the house. Ad. D. L., 1700 S. Jefferson av.

MAN—Situation wanted by white man; honest, sober, industrious; able to handle and repair; garden, lawn, etc.; best city references. Ad. M 702, this office.

MEAT CUTTER—Wanted, position by young man of 22 as meat cutter; regular graduate; in market; good references. Ad. H 704, this office.

PAINTER—Painter and paper hanger wants work by day or job. 2628 A. Stoddard st.

PAINTER—House painter wants work; city ref.; in and outside work; I have ladders and scaffolding. H. W. M., 5371 Arsenal st.

PHYSICIAN—Good physician wants a situation in mining or lumber town; regular graduate, with No. 1 references. Add. T 684, this office.

PHYSICIAN—Young physician would like to help older physician in his practice; object, experience, references, etc. Ad. N 684, this office.

PORTER—A respectable young colored man wishes a position as porter; can do work of any kind. Ad. B 704, this office.

PHYSICIAN—Good physician wants a situation with coal mining company or any corporation employing physician; regular graduate; will go to any point; city reference given. Answer at once. Ad. C 705, this office.

PERMANENT—Wanted, by a first-class penman, work in office; moderate salary. Ad. P 704, this office.

SALESMAN—Wanted, employment in retail grocery or dry goods store by experienced salesman; reference. Wm. T. Anderson, President St. Louis Elevator Co., Exchange Building, W. P. Smith, 3408 Franklin av.

SALESMAN—Situation wanted by salesman and window decorator; city or country. Add. H 685, this office.

YOUNG MAN—Age 25 years, wishes work of any kind; outdoor preferred; references. Ad. A 705, this office.

$3.00 UP—Pants to order, Messrs. Tuller Co., 219 N. 8th st., cor. Olive, 2d floor.

$12.50 UP—Suits and overcoats to order. Messrs. Tuller Co., 219 N. 8th st., cor. Olive, 2d floor.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

APPRENTICES WANTED—For barber trade; only 8 weeks required to complete; catalogue mailed free. St. Louis Barber College, 519 N. 3rd st.

BOY WANTED—Strong boy for laundry wagon and to make himself useful. 1608 Franklin av.

BOY WANTED—German boy to learn the barber trade; one with experience preferred. 800 N. Compton av.

BOY WANTED—A good boy about 15 years old for light work about house and yard. 2166 Lafayette.

BOY WANTED—16-year-old boy to work in feather store. 301 N. Main st.

BOY WANTED—German boy to learn the hair trade; one with some experience preferred. 300 S. Olive st.

BOY WANTED—A bright boy of 15 years for office work; must be a good penman. Add. E 405, this office.

BOY WANTED—Colored boy to take care of horse, cow and yard; must be able to handle and repair. Add. J. E. Nugent, care of B. Nugent & Bro.

BOY WANTED—Strong boy to learn horseboining. 5294 Olive st.

BOY WANTED—An experienced boy to deliver and work in grocery store. 302 Olive st.

BARBER WANTED—A barber; young man preferred. 2820 Market st.

BOY WANTED—A strong German boy about 15 years, at drug store. 1800 Lafayette av.

COOK WANTED—A good cook for boarding-house. 1010 Delmar.

CLERK WANTED—Union drug clerk, at once. W. E. Harlan, 4006 Easton av.

CARPENTERS—Who want a good shoe to see Harlan's $1.08 shoes. 520 Pine st.

COOK WANTED—Man cook for 10c and 15c restaurant. Ad. B 704, this office.

DISHWASHER WANTED—Good white boy. 1610 Lucas pl.

ENGINEER WANTED—A first-class licensed engineer; give reference and state where last employed. Add. G 704, this office.

FERR—Treatment for all private, blood and renal diseases. General Dispensary, 1408 Franklin av.

GARDENER WANTED—Man who understands gardening. 518 Pine st.

LABORERS WANTED—Laborers at 2800 Delkall street.

LABORERS WANTED—50 laborers to lay gas mains. Apply Monday morning, Grand and Park av.; good wages and steady employment. Laclede Gas Co.

MEN WANTED—Men in Forest Park, south of Wash. Depot. E. Wm. Accorby, 100 S. 12th st.

MEN WANTED—At Forest Park and Union av. Tuesday morning. K. W. Sullivan.

MEN WANTED—Men at Grand and Shenandoah. J. M. Sullivan.

MEN WANTED—Men to work in dairy. 4431 Olney av.

MEN WANTED—On building between Locust and St. Charles st. J. A. Carroll.

MAN WANTED—Man and wife (white), no children; man to milk cows for feed and laundry; place; man to cook and do laundry work; place; man to do laundry work; place. Add. 322 Commercial bldg.

MURKIN WANTED—An A-No. 1 pianist, who can also play an organ; sight reader and arranger; is accustomed to play for vaudeville show. Layman, 3500 Easton av.

MAN WANTED—A sober and industrious man to attend to horse and make himself generally useful on a farm. Best ref. recommended. Add. Chas. E. Musick, Hughesville, Mo.

MAN WANTED—A man or woman to help in kitchen. Call at 1012 Locust st.

SALESMAN WANTED—Experienced ticket man to represent the St. Louis Exposition and Exposition to gentlemen. Apply Holbert's, 2820 Washington st., 4th floor.

STEAM DRILLER WANTED—At once, experienced in steam drilling. Pruders & Querry, 3001 Broadway.

SHOVELERS WANTED—On Taylor and Olive st. J. A. Carroll.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WAGON DUMPERS WANTED—On Polom, four blocks west of Grand av. James Carroll.

YOUNG MAN WANTED—An active young man for kitchen work. 201 S. Broadway.

STOVE REPAIRS.

Castings and repairs for stoves and ranges of every description. G. Brauer, 210 Locust st.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

COOK—Wanted, situation by a first-class cook and German housewife. 1223 S. 14th st.

COOK—Situation wanted as good cook in small family. 912 Leonard av.

COOK—First-class cook wishes a situation, city or country. 1201 N. 10th st.

CUTTER AND FITTER—Wanted, work in families; first-class cutter and fitter. Mrs. A. S. 2904 Olive st.

GOVERNOR—Refined young lady desires position as governess for country home; good home; salary no object. Add. G 672, this office.

HOUSEKEEPER—Competent working housekeeper wishes to take charge of mechanical housework; wages; best references. Add. S, this office.

HOUSEWIFE—Wanted, situation for housewife; 30 years' experience; no ref.; wages no object. Add. L 705, this office.

HOUSEWIFE—A neat German girl wishes position as housewife; West End. Add. 218 S. 13th.

HOUSEWIFE—A neat colored girl wishes position as housewife; West End. Add. 218 S. 13th.

HOUSEKEEPER—Working housekeeper wishes position in widower's family. Add. G 600, this office.

HOUSEKEEPER—A widow lady wants situation as housekeeper for widower, with nice home. Add. 3021 Olive st., 12th st.

HOUSEWIFE—German girl wants situation as housewife or to do general housework. Apply at 4000 N. 23d st.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wanted, situation by middle-aged American housekeeper or gent's mess. A1 cook; no laundering; best reference. 2900 N. 2nd st.

HOUSEKEEPER—Nice widow wants situation as housekeeper for gent; understands business; will leave city. Call at 23114 Walnut st.

LAUNDRESS—Wanted, small washing to take home or go out; any kind of work about house; colored woman. 1419 Spruce st.

LAUNDRESS—A first-class white laundress wants washing and ironing to take home. Call or address Mrs. Green, 2827 Laclede av.

NURSE—Wanted, by girl of 18, situation as nurse; wages $5 a month. 10th and Biddle, room 15.

NURSE—Situation wanted by colored girl as nurse. 4223 North Market st.

SEAMSTRESS—Situation wanted by female to do plain sewing at home; men's shirts preferred. Add. 2025 Carr st., upstairs.

SITUATION—Situation wanted by lady; has been in business for herself and had to give it up; was too confining; would like to have something to do; can most anything that is honest. Add. D 702, this office.

WOMAN—Situation wanted by woman to work around farm household; can do anything required. Mary Chert, 1307 N. 12th st.

WRAPPER—Wanted, situation by experienced wrapper. 1436 N. 7th st.

STOVE REPAIRS.

For any gas, gasoline or coal stove. Joe. Forshaw, 111 N. 12th st.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

COOK WANTED—A good cook; no other need apply. 2021 Olive st., 12th st.

COOK WANTED—A good woman to do housework; must understand cooking; German preferred. Call at 1131 Washington av.

COOK WANTED—A cook and chambermaid at 2819 Locust st.; wages $10 each per month.

DRUGGIST WANTED—Lady druggist. Add. N 704, this office.

DINING-ROOM GIRL WANTED—An experienced dining-room girl; white. 1610 Lucas pl.

GIRL WANTED—Young girl for housework and care of children; no washing. 3332 Illinois av.

GIRL WANTED—Experienced girl for dining-room. Call at once, 307 Market st.

GIRL WANTED—15 years old, to learn to make garters. 2802 Lucas av.

GIRL WANTED—A girl to cut vests. 2818 S. 15th street.

GIRL WANTED—A girl between 18 and 25, in small family. Call at once, 1445 N. 12th st., 15.

GIRL WANTED—A neat girl to assist in bakery. Apply at 718 Chouteau av. after 5 o'clock.

GIRL WANTED—Girl in Old Orchard during August and September, for general housework. Apply 1202 Garfield av.

GIRL WANTED—German girl about 16 years for nursing and light housework. 4335 Pine st.

GIRL WANTED—A girl for upstairs work and to take care of children, at 5331 Chamberlain av.

GIRLS WANTED—Experienced girls to handle clothes on shop counter; also to handle ambonies and full sleeve lining; good wages paid and steady employment. Call at once, 1435 Morgan st., upstairs. E. Gellert, proprietor.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Family of four; wages, $12. 1230 Hamilton av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework; small family. 712 S. 8th st.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework; 4851 Fontaine av. Take suburban cars.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Good German girl for general housework. Apply 5242 Minerva av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—A German housewife with references. 4121 Delmar.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for housework; family of four. 5135 Page av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework; small family. 712 S. 8th st.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl to assist in general housework; must be a good chambermaid; no washing; good wages; two in family. 1208 St. Louis.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—A good, neat American or German Protestant girl competent to do general housework in a family of 4 at 5008 Cabanne av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework; family of 8; no children. 1746 Missouri.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—German girl 15 to 18 years old to assist in housework; small family; good wages. 2710 Franklin av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply at 2314 N. 15th st.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework; 1516 N. Grand av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—A white girl for general housework; good wages. 5338 Olive st.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Young girl to assist in general housework; family all grown. Apply 1511 Hickory.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework; small family. 1352 Garfield av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—A good German girl for general housework; without washing or ironing. 4048 Belmont av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework; must be a good cook. 3119 Franklin av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—A girl for light housework. 3119 Franklin av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—German girl for general housework; no washing, ironing or cooking. 3318 Washington av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—German girl for general housework; no washing or ironing. 3400 Laclede av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl about 16 years old to ferred. 2917 Park av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework; small family. 2223 Sidney av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework; small family. 2223 Sidney av.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl to do housework. 1831 Olive st.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework; one who can wash and iron. 22 Nichol-son pl.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Girl for general housework. 4146 Easton av.

HOUSEWIFE WANTED—Young girl to do general housework in small family. 4446 North Market.

LADY WANTED—To try on chicks. Room 408, Lindell Hotel, Call Tuesday.

LAUNDRESS WANTED—A good laundress. Apply to-day at 8706 Delmar av.

LAPATTE AV.—Wanted, a good German girl for housework.

NURSEWOMAN WANTED—A nurse. 1483 Arco avenue.

OPERATORS WANTED—Experienced machine operators, Singer machines, for campaign caps and hats. Apply to Joe. Ploette, 417 N. 7th st.

SALESWOMAN—Wanted for well-established firm; contract guaranteed. 716 Commercial Building.

STENOGRAPHER WANTED—Lady stenographer. Apply between 5:30 and 6 p. m. to-day at 1143 St. Charles st.

TAILOR WANTED—Good, steady seamstress to go to country. Apply to Labay-Crueckel Woolen Co.

WAITRESS WANTED—Experienced waitress at 1018 N. Broadway.

WANTED—A housewife at 1707 Olive st.

WOMAN WANTED—Competent woman for general work in private family in suburban town. Add. E 705, this office.

WOMAN WANTED—A colored woman, good cook; no washing. 3329 Morgan st.

WOMAN WANTED—Married or middle-aged woman to work in rooming-house (men roomers) for 5 or 6 of a kind. Add. G 706, this office.

WOMAN WANTED—Capable white woman to assist with cooking and washing; reasonable wages. 2700 Washington av.

Take Your Pick

When you have finally settled in your mind the kind of a canine you would like to have, write out your desires on a slip of paper and take it to the nearest Drug Store, and

P.-D. Wants

Will send you specimens galore to the front or rear door. 20 cents pays for 14 words.

Any Drug Store in St. Louis is authorized to receive advertisements and subscriptions for the Post-Dispatch. The Post-Dispatch has three special telephones exclusively for handling this business.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WOMAN WANTED—Woman or girl for light housework to-day. 3032 Maffitt av., near Fair Grounds.

GOLD AND SILVER

plating and repairs in all its branches; elegant work; low prices; watches, opera glasses, church utensils, gold-plated; new knives, forks, spoons, etc.; repaired at first cost; cash for old gold, silver and duplicate gold and silver presents; we repair jewelry, refinish, established. Samuel L. Downing & Co., 210 N. 7th st.

10c EXCURSIONS.

A day trip of 20 miles over the Highways Scenic R. (Houseman Air Line) from Forest Park to Meramec Highlands is a delightful pastime for those spending the summer months in the city. Meramec Highlands and Saturday evening for special car picnic, etc., see J. D. Houseman, Jr., Union Trust Building.

AGENTS WANTED.

AGENTS WANTED—Educated men to sell new specialty, universally commended. Room 12, second floor, Equitable Building.

PARTNERS WANTED.

BUSINESS MAN—Wanted, with a few hundred dollars, to take an interest in a theatrical enterprise. Add. B 704, this office.

PARTNER—Wanted, an active partner with $100; can make $35 a week clear. Add. O 704, this office.

LOST AND FOUND.

Lost.

CHARM—Lost, large-sized Royal Arcanum charm, at Suburban Seaside Railway station, Sunday evening. Liberal reward if returned to 604 Olive st.

CHAIN—Lost, gold watch chain, with diamond locket attached. Finder please return to 2032 Sidney st. and receive liberal reward.

DOG—Lost or stolen, from 4821 Cote Brillante av. Aug. 2, ferrier biter; brown spot over 1 eye; valuable spot back; answer to the name of Nellie. Liberal reward if returned to above number.

FIN—Lost, Etruscan gold pin, stones white coral and carnelian, on Washington st. between 1822 and 1824, or on 12th, between Washington av. and St. Charles, east side 1824. Return to 1522 Washington av. and receive reward.

POCKETBOOK—Lost, in Tower Grove Park, a red leather pocketbook containing two $5 bills and some valuable papers. Liberal reward if returned to 314 N. Broadway, 4th floor.

WATCH—Lost, at Concordia Park, Sunday, Aug. 2, lady's gold watch and chain; $5 reward. 1729 S. Compton av.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

BUSINESS—$25 average weekly net income with $2500 investment. No charge for inquiry. See prospectus. Del. 1208 Broadway, New York.

HORSES AND VEHICLES.

Wanted.

PASTURE—Blue grass pasture; shade and running water. B. S. Edmond, Pattonville, St. Louis County.

TEAM—Wanted, strong work team, with wagon and harness. American Real Estate and Investment Co. of Missouri, 622 Commercial Bldg.

For Sale.

BUGGY—For sale, 1 hand-made buggy, full leather top, worth $75, for $40. 4242 Hunt av.

VICTORIA—For sale, a light victoria; good as new; robe and shaft. At Crum & Jump's, Chandler and Locust; phone 7510.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS FOR SALE.

14 words or less, 10c.

ARTRON—Furniture buyer, wants old feather beds and bolsters; send photo. 1210 Olive st.

BED—For sale, large bed, mattress and springs, $5. 2904 Thomas st.

FURNITURE—For sale, icebox, kitchen sink, cook stove and tables; cheap. Apply 2823 Morgan st.

FURNITURE—Selling out; leaving city; two bed-room suits, folding ironing table, cheffonier, glass clock, numerous other things; nearly new. $801 S. 9th st.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS—Bedroom suite, oak and walnut, wood and marble top, walnut folding ironing table, folding ironing board, small refrigerator; cash or on small monthly payments. Eagle Loan Co., 1208 Franklin av., 2d floor.

BICYCLES.

14 words or less, 10c.

BALL-BEARING Bicycle shoes, $2.50; L. A. W. shoes, $2. 822 Harris, 200 Pine st.

BIKES—For sale, Cleveland 22 wheel special bicycle; 25-inch frame; perfect order; $55 cash. Add. F 705, this office.

EDUCATIONAL.

14 words or less, 10c.

LANGUAGES.

The Berlitz School of Languages, Old Fellows' Hall, open all summer. Lessons in conversation; also college preparation; reasonable fees.

RENT LISTS.

ROOMS FOR RENT.

14 words or less, 10c.

BENTON ST.—1510—Three nice rooms on second floor; cheap.

BROADWAY 513 S.—Nice, clean, furnished rooms for one or two guests; $1.25 and $1.50 per week.

COOK AV.—3823—4 well-lighted rooms.

CHRISTNUT ST.—1611—Nicely furnished rooms for gentlemen or couple; bath; all conveniences.

CARR ST.—2324—2 nice rooms on 2d floor; also 2 rooms on 1st floor; cheap.

CLARE AV.—2223—Unfurnished flats, 2 or more rooms; cheap; near station.

CHRISTNUT ST.—1611—Nicely furnished hall and housekeeping rooms; low rates; call.

CHOUTEAU AV.—1819—2 nice, bright furnished front rooms at reasonable price.

DICKSON ST.—3007A—3 pleasant rooms, completely furnished for light housekeeping; all conveniences; no children.

EASTON AV.—2906—2 nicely furnished rooms, arranged for light housekeeping; very reasonable.

LOUST ST.—2813—2 elegant rooms, single or on suite; southern exposure; front; private family; all conveniences.

LOUST ST.—2014—Best rooms, at once.

LA SALLE ST.—628—2 furnished rooms; bath; reasonable.

LEONARD AV.—1127—Two unfurnished rooms.

LEFFINGWELL AV.—1712—3 rooms and stable for two horses and wagon; rent cheap.

MISSOURI AV.—2528—3 nice rooms, $9.00.

MORGAN ST.—1424—Rooms for gentlemen and housekeeping; $1.50 per week; hall-room, $1.

OLIVE ST.—1608—Rooms for housekeeping or two or three guests.

ROOMS WITH BOARD.

GARRISON AV.—1011 N.—Nice, cool rooms, with good board; very reasonable; gent's or couple; no children; $3.75.

HOWARD ST.—2611—Nice room and good board for two gentlemen; no children; $3.75.

LOUST ST.—3048—Nicely furnished rooms; good table; reduced rates for the summer.

LOUST ST.—2121—Family hotel; handsomely furnished rooms; southern exposure; first-class board.

LUCAS AV.—3020—Nicely furnished rooms; first-class board; all conven

A PEEP INTO THE WINEROM.

PLACES WHERE YOUNG GIRLS ARE TAUGHT TO SIN.

SMITH WILL BE PROSECUTED.

A Reporter's Visit to Establishments on Washington Avenue Shows That There Are Others.

A determined effort is to be made by the police to close the saloon and wine room of Arthur Smith, Fourteenth street and Chouteau avenue, where 14-year-old Lydia Tillwein was debauched last week.

The charge against Smith of selling intoxicants to a minor will be pressed, if it is sustained the license can be cancelled. Mabel Ray, aged 15, who was with the Tillwein girl, is being held as a witness and will probably be sent to the House of the Good Shepherd.

There are many wine rooms in St. Louis as respectable as that run by Smith. They are not confined to the out-of-the-way, disreputable neighborhoods of the city. They flaunt their colored lights on busy thoroughfares and are visited by the well-dressed and respectable, affording passengers glimpses of degradation.

From within ribald songs, vulgarity and oaths assail the ears of passers-by on foot. Depravity flourishes behind frosted doors that serve to hide from sight, but cannot conceal from the other senses, the disgraceful scenes enacted nightly.

They are traps for unwary virtue, set as close to the heart of innocence as the proprietors dare set them. The dives on the Levee front are disgusting, but not dangerous. The contact with dejected wretches who have sunk below depravity before they became habitués. None enter save those whom the contact with vice cannot render more vicious.

Washington avenue, from Twentieth to Twenty-second street is a narrow boundary of a narrow crime-belt that separates the western residence portion of the city from the downtown business district. North of Pine street, crossing this crime-belt, which has come to be called the Valley of the Shadow of Death, because of the murders that have marked it for a year, are east and west streets that are respectable. Reputable families inhabit them.

A look from any one of them the open doors to destruction may be entered by youth at its inclination. The transient, leaving Washington avenue to venture south between Nineteenth and Twenty-second streets is immediate.

Like toll gates on the road to infancy, two wine rooms stand guard at the outskirts of the crime-belt. One of them is at the southeast corner of Twenty-first street and Washington avenue, a rock away at the southwest corner of Twenty-second street, is the other.

The second is a recent record of a woman murdered. The first has its record of brawls and ruined lives that has more than once brought it under the notice of the police. The proprietors of these establishments are of influence. There is no remembrance of any harm having come to him through disorderly conduct.

He is Louis A. Cella, his saloon and wine-room is called "The Place." Qualified by certain phrases, "The Place" is a respectable establishment. The proprietors of the "toll-gate" at Twenty-second street, the "Echo" saloon, is John P. Penna.

All day and all night the cars of the Lindell line pass both places. Ordinarily the cars are crowded at night by respectable persons. Washington avenue is a popular promenade.

Pedestrians are in closer touch with the scenes behind the frosted doors than are the patrons of the street cars. A large number of the families who pass these places nightly are young girls. In the winter months, when night falls early, crowds of girls from the factories and the city street, below Twenty-first, troop past the frosted doors.

In summer darkness brings out the routes of the families of the residential east and west streets. Girls in groups of three and four are seen passing Washington avenue. Sometimes they meet in small companions.

Couples are particularly numerous on the thoroughfare after dark on Sunday. They saunter up and down, pause to gossip or seat themselves on the benches along the street. They are in the opportunity for wrong-doing.

A step brings them to the ladies' entrance of "The Place." Often it is the place to be remembered with despair by the young girl who enters. Perhaps the proprietor is a man of influence. She shrinks from the ladies' entrance, which reveals a pair of swinging doors opening into the main barroom and another pair opening into the wine-room. The latter shows from two street doors only three tables and chairs ranged along the wall.

Very well, Miss Prude, there is a summer garden provided for such nice girls as you. A few paces down Twenty-first street and there is the entrance. A respectable family summer garden. A respectable family summer garden. A respectable family summer garden.

Through low swinging doors a glare of light is shed into the city street. The "wine-room." It is perfectly quiet within. The proprietor is a man of influence. She shrinks from the ladies' entrance, which reveals a pair of swinging doors opening into the main barroom and another pair opening into the wine-room. The latter shows from two street doors only three tables and chairs ranged along the wall.

The couple who have entered through the garden pass into the wine-room. A small table and two chairs are the furniture. A waiter appears and disappears to return with a glass of beer and a glass of soda water. The door to the apartment is shut until the waiter has been called back.

A well-loved lad, convenience, snug, and more deeply into the subject. A Post-Dispatch reporter visited "The Place" Sunday night. The tables in the wine-room proper were deserted. The proprietors were in the crowd of men were drinking and carousing. Their conversation, carried on in loud tones, consisted chiefly of oaths. Occasionally some of the roysters would break out into ribald songs.

The reporter listens, listens and observes. From his point of vantage can be heard all that transpires in the wine-room. All that can be seen are the tables in the wine-room and the closed doors of the private apartments.

Suddenly the song from the bar-room is interrupted by a shrill female voice. The owner is trying to sing "Everybody Takes His Hat Off to Me." Her voice breaks as she reaches the end of the first line and she commences again. She reels the line off three or four times.

A waiter appears and the door of the apartment from which the voice issued is thrown open. The owner of the voice is seen to be a woman of 35 with painted face and combed hair. There is another female in the apartment. There is light in the caddy, and that from the two gas jets in the wine-room proper does not penetrate to where the second female sits. Her features are concealed by the shadow. She may be 15 or she may be 40, the other occupants of the caddy. They have their coats off. It is very warm and there are no fans.

The waiter serves four beers and the door is closed again. The next apartment is a mystery. The door has been closed for some time. The caddy glass shows the shadow of a man moving about. The waiter enters and the door is opened.

Now he opens the door a moment. He is a female figure. She wears a pink shirt-waist. Her face is painted and she has the mark of time on her brow apparent in the light of the other department. Her hair is plaited and looped up loosely from her shoulders, confined with a pink ribbon.

The waiter appears and the bald-headed man tells him to bring a glass of beer. "Yes, yes," inquires the waiter. The bald-headed man frowns and the waiter serves him a glass of beer. Perhaps the girl in the pink waist is suspicious, since she will not drink even a glass of soda water.

The third room is unoccupied. The door is wide open. A man and a woman enter the wine-room through the ladies' entrance on Twenty-first street. They seat themselves at one of the tables. The man orders a glass of beer and a glass of soda water. The man says something to the waiter. The waiter enters and the door is opened.

The waiter serves the drinks in the wine-room. The man has closed the door on entering. As the waiter is heard approaching with the drinks the man throws the door open again. Then it is closed once more. The couple remain within about ten minutes, then they reappear and pass out on the street.

The two men and two women in the first caddy have already departed. The bald-headed man and the girl in the second room. An effort is made to close up the wine rooms. Cella is a politician.

There is no "summer garden" attachment to John Penna's resort on the next corner west. The "ladies' entrance" is the only means of reaching the wine room. It was through the back yard that "fun" was had. The waiter is heard approaching with the drinks. The man throws the door open again. Then it is closed once more.

The couple remain within about ten minutes, then they reappear and pass out on the street. The two men and two women in the first caddy have already departed. The bald-headed man and the girl in the second room. An effort is made to close up the wine rooms. Cella is a politician.

There is no "summer garden" attachment to John Penna's resort on the next corner west. The "ladies' entrance" is the only means of reaching the wine room. It was through the back yard that "fun" was had. The waiter is heard approaching with the drinks. The man throws the door open again. Then it is closed once more.

The couple remain within about ten minutes, then they reappear and pass out on the street. The two men and two women in the first caddy have already departed. The bald-headed man and the girl in the second room. An effort is made to close up the wine rooms. Cella is a politician.

There is no "summer garden" attachment to John Penna's resort on the next corner west. The "ladies' entrance" is the only means of reaching the wine room. It was through the back yard that "fun" was had. The waiter is heard approaching with the drinks. The man throws the door open again. Then it is closed once more.

The couple remain within about ten minutes, then they reappear and pass out on the street. The two men and two women in the first caddy have already departed. The bald-headed man and the girl in the second room. An effort is made to close up the wine rooms. Cella is a politician.

There is no "summer garden" attachment to John Penna's resort on the next corner west. The "ladies' entrance" is the only means of reaching the wine room. It was through the back yard that "fun" was had. The waiter is heard approaching with the drinks. The man throws the door open again. Then it is closed once more.

The couple remain within about ten minutes, then they reappear and pass out on the street. The two men and two women in the first caddy have already departed. The bald-headed man and the girl in the second room. An effort is made to close up the wine rooms. Cella is a politician.

There is no "summer garden" attachment to John Penna's resort on the next corner west. The "ladies' entrance" is the only means of reaching the wine room. It was through the back yard that "fun" was had. The waiter is heard approaching with the drinks. The man throws the door open again. Then it is closed once more.

The couple remain within about ten minutes, then they reappear and pass out on the street. The two men and two women in the first caddy have already departed. The bald-headed man and the girl in the second room. An effort is made to close up the wine rooms. Cella is a politician.

There is no "summer garden" attachment to John Penna's resort on the next corner west. The "ladies' entrance" is the only means of reaching the wine room. It was through the back yard that "fun" was had. The waiter is heard approaching with the drinks. The man throws the door open again. Then it is closed once more.

The couple remain within about ten minutes, then they reappear and pass out on the street. The two men and two women in the first caddy have already departed. The bald-headed man and the girl in the second room. An effort is made to close up the wine rooms. Cella is a politician.

There is no "summer garden" attachment to John Penna's resort on the next corner west. The "ladies' entrance" is the only means of reaching the wine room. It was through the back yard that "fun" was had. The waiter is heard approaching with the drinks. The man throws the door open again. Then it is closed once more.

The couple remain within about ten minutes, then they reappear and pass out on the street. The two men and two women in the first caddy have already departed. The bald-headed man and the girl in the second room. An effort is made to close up the wine rooms. Cella is a politician.

There is no "summer garden" attachment to John Penna's resort on the next corner west. The "ladies' entrance" is the only means of reaching the wine room. It was through the back yard that "fun" was had. The waiter is heard approaching with the drinks. The man throws the door open again. Then it is closed once more.

KILLED HIMSELF AT DAWN OF DAY.

FREDERICK JACKO'S SUICIDE CANNOT BE EXPLAINED.

TWO BULLETS IN HIS BRAIN.

Police Theory of Worry, Superinduced by Poverty, Contradicted by the Dead Man's Children.

Frederick Jacko, a Frenchman, 47 years old, shot himself at his home, 1214 North Seventh street, at 5:15 a. m. Monday. He died at the City Hospital three-quarters of an hour later.

Jacko was determined to end his life, for he sent two bullets into his right temple, and attempted to send a third. His hand failed him, and a flesh wound in the right cheek was the result.

Jacko was a porter, employed by the St. Louis Iron Store Co. No. 408 North Second street. He had not worked for two weeks, and the police say that he killed himself because he was sick and had no work. Members of his family deny this. They state that he refrained from work on account of the heat.

Frederick Jacko, a Frenchman, 47 years old, shot himself at his home, 1214 North Seventh street, at 5:15 a. m. Monday. He died at the City Hospital three-quarters of an hour later.

Jacko was determined to end his life, for he sent two bullets into his right temple, and attempted to send a third. His hand failed him, and a flesh wound in the right cheek was the result.

Jacko was a porter, employed by the St. Louis Iron Store Co. No. 408 North Second street. He had not worked for two weeks, and the police say that he killed himself because he was sick and had no work. Members of his family deny this. They state that he refrained from work on account of the heat.

Frederick Jacko, a Frenchman, 47 years old, shot himself at his home, 1214 North Seventh street, at 5:15 a. m. Monday. He died at the City Hospital three-quarters of an hour later.

Jacko was determined to end his life, for he sent two bullets into his right temple, and attempted to send a third. His hand failed him, and a flesh wound in the right cheek was the result.

Jacko was a porter, employed by the St. Louis Iron Store Co. No. 408 North Second street. He had not worked for two weeks, and the police say that he killed himself because he was sick and had no work. Members of his family deny this. They state that he refrained from work on account of the heat.

Frederick Jacko, a Frenchman, 47 years old, shot himself at his home, 1214 North Seventh street, at 5:15 a. m. Monday. He died at the City Hospital three-quarters of an hour later.

Jacko was determined to end his life, for he sent two bullets into his right temple, and attempted to send a third. His hand failed him, and a flesh wound in the right cheek was the result.

Jacko was a porter, employed by the St. Louis Iron Store Co. No. 408 North Second street. He had not worked for two weeks, and the police say that he killed himself because he was sick and had no work. Members of his family deny this. They state that he refrained from work on account of the heat.

Frederick Jacko, a Frenchman, 47 years old, shot himself at his home, 1214 North Seventh street, at 5:15 a. m. Monday. He died at the City Hospital three-quarters of an hour later.

Jacko was determined to end his life, for he sent two bullets into his right temple, and attempted to send a third. His hand failed him, and a flesh wound in the right cheek was the result.

Jacko was a porter, employed by the St. Louis Iron Store Co. No. 408 North Second street. He had not worked for two weeks, and the police say that he killed himself because he was sick and had no work. Members of his family deny this. They state that he refrained from work on account of the heat.

Frederick Jacko, a Frenchman, 47 years old, shot himself at his home, 1214 North Seventh street, at 5:15 a. m. Monday. He died at the City Hospital three-quarters of an hour later.

Jacko was determined to end his life, for he sent two bullets into his right temple, and attempted to send a third. His hand failed him, and a flesh wound in the right cheek was the result.

Jacko was a porter, employed by the St. Louis Iron Store Co. No. 408 North Second street. He had not worked for two weeks, and the police say that he killed himself because he was sick and had no work. Members of his family deny this. They state that he refrained from work on account of the heat.

Frederick Jacko, a Frenchman, 47 years old, shot himself at his home, 1214 North Seventh street, at 5:15 a. m. Monday. He died at the City Hospital three-quarters of an hour later.

Jacko was determined to end his life, for he sent two bullets into his right temple, and attempted to send a third. His hand failed him, and a flesh wound in the right cheek was the result.

Jacko was a porter, employed by the St. Louis Iron Store Co. No. 408 North Second street. He had not worked for two weeks, and the police say that he killed himself because he was sick and had no work. Members of his family deny this. They state that he refrained from work on account of the heat.

SHOT IN THE NECK.

Dairymen Joseph Thiessmann Dangerously Wounded by Louis Kahre, Who Wanted Money.

Joseph Thiessmann, who was shot in the neck by Louis Kahre in Benedict Thiessmann's dairy, 241 Birch street, Sunday, not out of danger. The Mullaphy Hospital physicians said Monday that they could not say whether he would recover.

The police are still trying to catch Kahre. The shooting was done without provocation, and in a spirit of anger, according to the Thiessmanns. Kahre was employed about the dairy at $15 a month and board, and his wages were not due until Aug. 15.

He drew 50 cents from Benedict Thiessmann Sunday morning, and after the dairy owner went out with his wagon Kahre demanded $15 from Mrs. Thiessmann. She told him to wait until her husband returned, and the man left the house in a rage.

He was seen by the free silver fight for Gov. Stone in the Kansas City Convention hall, when some of the Governor's close friends were for gold and some for silver. Kahre fled and was last seen crossing a bridge at 14th and Main streets. He is 54 years old, weighs 140 pounds and has a good deal of gray hair. He used to work for Barney Biegan, a dairymen, and the Polar Wave Ice Co.

O'MEARA RESPONDS.

He Denies That He Has Been a Luke-Warm Silver Man or That He Issues Passes.

Lieut.-Gov. John B. O'Meara, who is an aspirant for nomination by the Jefferson City Convention and is being opposed by Police Commissioner John A. Lee, denies the report that his support of the free silver cause has been lukewarm.

He said that the free silver fight for Gov. Stone in the Kansas City Convention hall, when some of the Governor's close friends were for gold and some for silver, was won. But neither his friends nor he have faltered in our devotion to free silver, and we are in line now as we have always been.

Some one has said that any one who wanted a pass to the convention should come to me. I know nothing about passes and I never issued any. The committee that the City Central Committee has made for the Missouri Pacific convention, and that the Frisco gave passes to the delegates, I have never seen. I do not know how true the report is.

Not asking an aid from the railroad to secure the nomination for Lieutenant-Governor, I have never issued any passes, but am relying on my friends.

That Conley has the worst of the impromptu election is a badly guessed head. Added to this is the fact caused by the death of his only baby, which he charges largely to the unkindness of Brady.

Conley is a laborer. While the baby was sick, he was unable to hire a physician, took daily to the City Dispensary for treatment.

Friday, when it was so hot, Conley wanted to take the baby to the City Dispensary, but feared to take it out in the broiling sun without the protection of an umbrella. Mrs. Conley knew that that was not the body of Kline. When that was discovered, as Mr. Mack knew that the baby was missing and to avoid any misunderstanding, she called the night watchman and asked him to look for the baby.

But the night watchman never looked for the baby. Conley called the night watchman to a doctor to drop in to see it, but nothing could be done, and the child died.

The foreman of the house where Kline had been employed says that a man named Kline worked for him a long time ago. Kline was an old man with a white beard, but he was not sure whether any of his fingers were missing or not. That man lived the vicinity of 132 Palm street.

How he got, and what he did to the child, was not known. "When the child was dying, and the wife begged me to let her see the child, which I did, he turned her off with a cold answer."

Conley is a laborer and a wife too, hotly replied Brady. "You're another and a wretch that will be damned for the rest of your life."

A cursing match ensued and Mrs. Conley and Mrs. Brady were about to pull each other's hair, when suddenly Brady stepped up and walked around the house. Conley remained sitting and was trying to quiet his wife, when he was struck a terrible blow from behind that felled him out on the ground.

Brady struck the blow with a heavy pick handle. Brady's wife was up, and he started to go to the life of his wife, but he was probably have done so had it not been for the women.

Mrs. Brady dragged her husband away more dead than alive and drenched with his own blood.

Monday morning Conley reached the Dispensary, and Dr. Lippe took a dozen stitches in one gash on the back of his head, and three or four stitches in another on his forehead. Besides these wounds Conley's eyes were black and swollen, and he had several days before he is able to work again.

AN OLD WOMAN HURT. Mrs. Berka Run over by a Rapidly Driven Horse on Pestalozzi Street.

Mrs. Mary Berka, 55 years old, was run over and seriously injured at the corner of Pestalozzi street and Wisconsin avenue by a horse driven by an unknown man, late Saturday night.

YOUR MONEY BACK IF YOU WANT IT.

Prices Have Shot the Chutes!

We positively will not carry any spring or summer clothing over till next season. We never did. We never will. The goods MUST be sold now. That's the long and short of it. All consideration of cost and value lost sight of in making the final, sweeping price reductions.

YOU CAN COME AND TAKE YOUR UNRESTRICTED CHOICE OF THE VERY FINEST MEN'S SUITS

IN THE HOUSE, None reserved. None excepted (but uniforms). When we say our very finest it means the best that money can buy. All $16 Suits, all $18 Suits, all $20 Suits, all $25 Suits. Take whichever you please for.....

MEN'S $8, $9 and $10 Suits ruthlessly dumped at.....$4.90

MEN'S $5, $6 and $7 Suits recklessly dumped at.....$2.60

UNRESTRICTED CHOICE OF ANY Young Men's or Boys' Suit IN THE HOUSE, Aged 12 to 18 years—not a single garment reserved—worth $15.00 to $18.00, DUMPED TO.....

WITH A PICK HANDLE. Mike Brady Nearly Killed Dennis Conley for Charging Him With Being Unneighborly.

The neighbors love that once flourished between the households of Dennis Conley and Mike Brady, who occupy adjoining cottages on Rippe street, out in Cheltenham, has been shattered, and blood and hate fills the chasm between them.

That Conley has the worst of the impromptu election is a badly guessed head. Added to this is the fact caused by the death of his only baby, which he charges largely to the unkindness of Brady.

Conley is a laborer. While the baby was sick, he was unable to hire a physician, took daily to the City Dispensary for treatment.

Friday, when it was so hot, Conley wanted to take the baby to the City Dispensary, but feared to take it out in the broiling sun without the protection of an umbrella. Mrs. Conley knew that that was not the body of Kline. When that was discovered, as Mr. Mack knew that the baby was missing and to avoid any misunderstanding, she called the night watchman and asked him to look for the baby.

But the night watchman never looked for the baby. Conley called the night watchman to a doctor to drop in to see it, but nothing could be done, and the child died.

The foreman of the house where Kline had been employed says that a man named Kline worked for him a long time ago. Kline was an old man with a white beard, but he was not sure whether any of his fingers were missing or not. That man lived the vicinity of 132 Palm street.

How he got, and what he did to the child, was not known. "When the child was dying, and the wife begged me to let her see the child, which I did, he turned her off with a cold answer."

Conley is a laborer and a wife too, hotly replied Brady. "You're another and a wretch that will be damned for the rest of your life."

A cursing match ensued and Mrs. Conley and Mrs. Brady were about to pull each other's hair, when suddenly Brady stepped up and walked around the house. Conley remained sitting and was trying to quiet his wife, when he was struck a terrible blow from behind that felled him out on the ground.

Brady struck the blow with a heavy pick handle. Brady's wife was up, and he started to go to the life of his wife, but he was probably have done so had it not been for the women.

Mrs. Brady dragged her husband away more dead than alive and drenched with his own blood.

Monday morning Conley reached the Dispensary, and Dr. Lippe took a dozen stitches in one gash on the back of his head, and three or four stitches in another on his forehead. Besides these wounds Conley's eyes were black and swollen, and he had several days before he is able to work again.

AN OLD WOMAN HURT. Mrs. Berka Run over by a Rapidly Driven Horse on Pestalozzi Street.

Mrs. Mary Berka, 55 years old, was run over and seriously injured at the corner of Pestalozzi street and Wisconsin avenue by a horse driven by an unknown man, late Saturday night.

Mrs. Berka was at her home, 2370 McNair avenue, unable to move from her bed. She was crawling Wisconsin avenue, on Pestalozzi street, when the horse, which was going at a high rate of speed, trampled her under foot. The horse stepped on her and then the wheels of the buggy passed over her.

MISSING FINGERS.

By Them a Body Is Identified, but Too Late to Save Expense to the City.

The body of the old man, taken from the river at the foot of Neosho street Sunday afternoon, has been identified, but because of the carelessness of the night watchman at the Morgue the city has a corpse on its hands which it does not know what to do with.

Early Monday morning, before Supt. Fred Mack arrived, a man called at the Morgue and told the night watchman that he did not want to see the body, but if it had two fingers off of one hand and one finger off of the other he would claim it, that it was that of old man Kline, who had worked for Olcott, Duros & Co. in their planing mill at Buchanan street and Broadway several months ago.

The night watchman went into the dead room to take the body and returned, telling the man that the hands and fingers of the dead man were intact.

Conley is a laborer. While the baby was sick, he was unable to hire a physician, took daily to the City Dispensary for treatment.

Friday, when it was so hot, Conley wanted to take the baby to the City Dispensary, but feared to take it out in the broiling sun without the protection of an umbrella. Mrs. Conley knew that that was not the body of Kline. When that was discovered, as Mr. Mack knew that the baby was missing and to avoid any misunderstanding, she called the night watchman and asked him to look for the baby.

But the night watchman never looked for the baby. Conley called the night watchman to a doctor to drop in to see it, but nothing could be done, and the child died.

The foreman of the house where Kline had been employed says that a man named Kline worked for him a long time ago. Kline was an old man with a white beard, but he was not sure whether any of his fingers were missing or not. That man lived the vicinity of 132 Palm street.

How he got, and what he did to the child, was not known. "When the child was dying, and the wife begged me to let her see the child, which I did, he turned her off with a cold answer."

Conley is a laborer and a wife too, hotly replied Brady. "You're another and a wretch that will be damned for the rest of your life."

A cursing match ensued and Mrs. Conley and Mrs. Brady were about to pull each other's hair, when suddenly Brady stepped up and walked around the house. Conley remained sitting and was trying to quiet his wife, when he was struck a terrible blow from behind that felled him out on the ground.

Brady struck the blow with a heavy pick handle. Brady's wife was up, and he started to go to the life of his wife, but he was probably have done so had it not been for the women.

Mrs. Brady dragged her husband away more dead than alive and drenched with his own blood.

Monday morning Conley reached the Dispensary, and Dr. Lippe took a dozen stitches in one gash on the back of his head, and three or four stitches in another on his forehead. Besides these wounds Conley's eyes were black and swollen, and he had several days before he is able to work again.

AN OLD WOMAN HURT. Mrs. Berka Run over by a Rapidly Driven Horse on Pestalozzi Street.

Mrs. Mary Berka, 55 years old, was run over and seriously injured at the corner of Pestalozzi street and Wisconsin avenue by a horse driven by an unknown man, late Saturday night.

Mrs. Berka was at her home, 2370 McNair avenue, unable to move from her bed. She was crawling Wisconsin avenue, on Pestalozzi street, when the horse, which was going at a high rate of speed, trampled her under foot. The horse stepped on her and then the wheels of the buggy passed over her.

She lay in the middle of the road until the horse was stopped and the driver returned. The driver was stopped by a man who was crowing Wisconsin avenue, on Pestalozzi street, when the horse, which was going at a high rate of speed, trampled her under foot. The horse stepped on her and then the wheels of the buggy passed over her.

Mrs. Berka was carried into a store on the corner and a physician was called. She was badly injured about the head. The horse had stepped on her hip and dug a large hole in it. It is possible that she sustained a concussion of the brain. The driver gave her name as Fred Mueller, a Third Ward statesman in place of Henry Besch, who has qualified as City Registrar.